

ENEL700 Tutorial 12

1. Identify three modern telecommunications technologies that are used in your daily life. Explain how they affect your life in a positive way.
2. Discuss the common hardware for modern telecommunications. Where do you usually find them?
3. Explain how communication engineering is related to other engineering field, such as automation control, mechanical production and manufacturing, biomedical and environmental studies.
4. Propose a feasible method to improve our broadband connection speed in New Zealand. Explain how it can be implemented.